

Welcome to the Ufford Crown, a friendly, family run pub and restaurant in the charming village of Ufford, Suffolk.

Max and Polly Durrant reopened the doors of the Ufford Crown in April 2011 with the aim of offering delicious food, with excellent service in a welcoming place.

Leading the kitchen brigade are accomplished chef Will Hardiman and team, who create tempting menus, using seasonal produce from local suppliers.

The Ufford Crown comprises of a spacious restaurant, a cosy bar and a stylish lounge area which is popular for diners as well as private parties. There is also a terrace where warm summer evenings and lazy Sundays can be enjoyed, as well as an attractive garden with a heated marquee and a lovely children's play area in the back.

Don't forget, dogs are welcome to come also, outside and in the bar area.
